

2023 YEAR IN REVIEW

FARM ANIMAL CARE COALITION OF TENNESSEE

Outreach

Social Media

28% increase

Farmers

4,250

Consumers

124,400

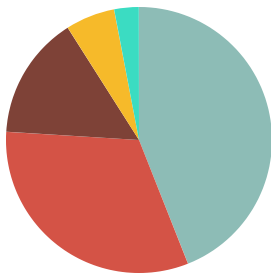

Local Responders

1,835

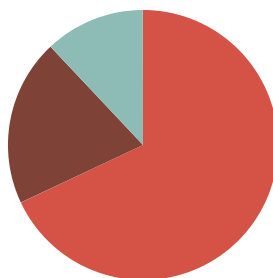

Financials

Funding Sources

- Crop/ Feed 49%
- Public Relations 31%
- Financial 11%
- Livestock 7%
- Other 2%

Spending Breakdown

- Programming 68%
- Administrative 20%
- Marketing 12%

Noteworthy

Through partnerships with the Tennessee Sheriff's Association, Tennessee Rescue Squad Association, and the Animal Care and Control Association of Tennessee, FACCT is able to build relationships with those who serve as local responders in communities across the state. These relationships allow livestock emergencies and issues to be addressed efficiently and effectively. We are grateful for these partnerships outside of the agricultural community.

www.tnfacct.org
615.970.8065
juliefacct@gmail.com

FACCT is a unified voice to promote, connect and educate about animal agriculture and livestock well-being.