

About Us

Farm Animal Care Coalition of Tennessee (FACCT) is a non profit committed to serving as a unified voice for humane care, well being issues and best management practices for Tennessee Livestock. FACCT seeks to provide a science based perspective on issues affecting animal agriculture. FACCT serves an educational resource, providing training and information regarding farm animal welfare to producers, law enforcement, the public, and others involved in animal agriculture.

Contact Us

Phone

615-970-8065

Website

www.tnfacct.org

Address

530 B Brandies Circle
Murfreesboro, TN 37128

FACCT LIVESTOCK 911 TRAINING

2024 Livestock 911

OCTOBER 15, 2024

Middle Tennessee State University
Livestock Center
1720 Greenland Drive
Murfreesboro, TN 37132
Training begins at 8:00am

Register online at www.tnfacct.org/livestock911

FREE TO ATTEND

Our Training

Livestock 911 training is designed for local authorities to gain a better understanding of livestock neglect in Tennessee. During the training participants will learn about

PROSECUTIONS

Gain understanding over livestock neglect prosecutions through proper protocol with the Tennessee Department of Agriculture.

LIVESTOCK HANDLING

Learn how to body condition score livestock as a key indicator of neglect. Participants will body score horses, cattle, and other livestock and also learn handling techniques.

RESOURCES & CONTACTS

Identify contacts and resources across the state assist in livestock neglect and crisis situations. From forms for prosecution to feed for livestock there is a resource available.

Our Sponsors

Be inspired

